PANIC ON A STRAMER.

VALPARAISO, June 22.—The steamer Cachapolo on a voyage to Coquimbo shoountered heavy weather on Saturday last. A panic occurred among the deck passengers who lowered the boats all of which foundered, six persons being lost. The greater part of the deck cargo was thrown overboard by the passengers. The steamer arrived safely at Coquimto Sunday night.

Notice to Agents.

Is our correspondent "G" is as good in his guesses as he is prolific, the counties of Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego will be pretty well gridironed with Atchison, Topeks and Santa Fé railroads one of these days. One thing that makes his guesses very interesting is that he seems to have the logic of the situation on his side every time. Well, let the railroads come along as fast as their projectors choose to build them. The Atchison, Topeks and Santa Fé people have not injured this country to any appreciable extent as yet, and we will trust to the mollifying influence of our old-time friends, the "home corporation," to keep the aggressive Bostonses from utterly doing us up is future. "G" is a gorgeous guesser. More G" is a gorgeous guesser. More over to his elbow!

Those were golden words spoken by Prof. Friesner, Superintendent of the Loa Angeles Public Schools, to the young ladjes of the Ellis Villa College who graduated a few days ago.

"It may be very slowly, but we are surely growing away from that old idea that a woman need only be able to read and write, in order that her education may be considered complete When higher education for both sexes shall become as universal as elementary education is now made for the masses, then will we staud on a plain infinitely above anything we have yet cocapied.

"Honor and fame may be yours, but do not go about in search of them—they are vain and empty bubbles, unless they come unsolicited and without your seeking. Do only your duty as God and conscience give you to see the right, and all clese is assured. This world has much need of you, and all such as you, because it is ired of the fop and the gay butterfly of fashion, and is carnestly looking for honest men and pure women."

To our correspondent "G" is as good thieving crew and stole valuable property belonging to a powerful and prose. Jesupher of a modern by Jason—that our faithful and devoted friends, the dogs, be banished, we recognize the injustice of an hereditary taids. Banish the dogs and what shall hinder the loafers, thieves and other Jasonites from practicing their depredations at all hours. Out upon such meanness! The dog's life is, in its degree, a noble life and is as worthy of preservation as any other oresture's. A good dog is better company than the individual so narrow—minded as to want it has been been sent when the whole earth, or so bloated with conceit as to be wholly absorbed in self-love.

"Who we staud on a plain infinitely above supplied and without your seeking. Do only your duty as God and conscience give you to see the right, and all clese is assured. This world has much need of you, and all such as you, because it is lired of the fop and the gay butterfly of fashion, and is carnestly looking for honest men and pure women."
